New York, June 16.—In a finish that Rubia Granda. worked up the crowd to a high pitch of Spellbound excitement and puzzled even the practiced eyes of the judges, Evening Sons McCarter 116 SIXTH RACE-Maiden three-year-olds and SIXTH RACE-Maiden three-year-olds and sixty miles. and Huda's Sister ran a dead heat at ward; selling; one and on Gravesend to-day in the first race for two-year-olds. Starter Cassidy sent them away with Evening Song under full headway. Little Glass, who had the mount, took hold of the reins as he neared the lead to the start of the start far turn, where Huda's Sister had come up with a great flight of early speed and was fighting for her head, too. These pacemakers turned into the home stretch FIRST RACE-One mile. like a team, with Responseful closing rap-

Huda's Sister was in front by a neck at the last sixteenth pole, where Glass went Ad to the whip in earnest, and Evening Song gradually recovered her lost advantage. Creevy was at the bat also. When the three youngsters reached the judge's line of vision their riders could have been covered with a blanket, so that when the result was announced as a dead heat there was universal satisfaction.

Qualifies for Suburban. Alfred Noble, another strong favorite, qualified for next week's Suburban by winning the handicap at a mile and a sixteenth in the fiercest kind of a drive by a

One of the surprises of the afterno was the victory of Prince Gal, a 20-to-1 shot, in the handicap for three-year-olds. Harrigan was favorite, but after making the pace to the end of the far turn, Prince Gal ran over him and won by a length and a half.

After being shut off twice, Lad of Langden, favorite, was taken to the outside on the far turn, where he wore down the pacemaker, Lord Stanhope, and won by three parts of a length.

The Wrestler, still another favorite, made a runaway of the fifth and rollicked home on the bit with lengths to spare. Golconda, a long shot, ran into the place Lucetta, who was generally overlooked at 15 to 1, breezed home two lengths before Dominica in the last race. Mr. Whitney's May Florence was third.
